

The Detroit News

ARTS & STYLE

Howl-o-ween Pet Parade sure to be a howl

The fourth annual Howl-o-ween Pet Parade will be held Saturday along Main Street in Frankenmuth. Dogs and cats dressed in costumes can trick-or-treat for goodies or surprises. First, second and third prizes will be awarded to the best and most original costumes. Last year's parade drew more than 100 pets in monster, bumblebee and other funny and scary costumes. The best costume winner was a Yorkshire terrier dressed as a cowboy riding a fake horse.

The pet parade will begin at 3 p.m. and the costume contest at 4 p.m. The event is sponsored by Raining Cats and Dogs, 646 S. Main St., and participating businesses will display a paw print in their window or door. For more information, call (989) 652-8100.

Alesia Cooper

csnstores.com

Dress your pet for Halloween.

