What to do, where to shop and how to keep from overeating this weekend

All over metro Boston this weekend, deals will be hatched and steals made. We're not talking investment banking; we're talking Black Friday. Here are some extras to make the shopping spree go with a bang. In a good way.

Metro readers get lucky

Metro readers can avoid real world shopping hoopla and grab an exclusive 15 percent Black Friday discount at Boston-based online superstore CSN. Just enter CSNMETRO in the promo bar during checkout. Couch shoppers can browse 250 sites, eggnog in hand, choosing from Cookware.com, Luggage.com, Bedrooms.com, ShoesGotSole.com, and many, many more. In the cool and useful department: Andy Warhol by Rosenthal's set of four Marilyn Monroe mugs ($70), which stack to reproduce Warhol's iconic Monroe pop portraits.
