Hope is just around the corner, or not

Felicitations and afflictions:

From CSN Stores, which sells fitness equipment: "The holiday months will result in an end to established healthy habits." In keeping with that, "Ten o'clock is awfully early for her to be vomiting." This was overheard by David Swope at what he says was the first office holiday party of the year.

VeeV Acai Spirit calls office holiday parties "tricky events" with dangers of "hangovers, embarrassments or buzzed photos put on Facebook the day after."
