

Newsday

Travel gifts

ON THE ROAD IN STYLE

BY JONNE GILL
jgill@newsday.com

Whether you're shopping for a road warrior or a vacationer, the travel enthusiast on your list will enjoy these gifts for those on the go. Choices are sorted into three price categories — economy class ($25 or less), business class ($100 or less) and first class (more than $100) — so you can find a gift no matter what your budget.

Keep the wee ones occupied with DwellStudio's transportation-themed scribble kit, $36. Crayola crayons and a pad are tucked into the portfolio, which has plenty of room to add a child's favorite art bring-alongs or small toys, csnstores.com or fawnandforest.com.