Watch in style

Don't have a ticket or a dump truck?

No problem.

You can watch the game like Tony Romo and the rest of the Cowboys — from the comfort of your own home.

And you would be amazed at what's out there to make you cozy without leaving any doubt about your loyalties.

CSNStores.com has all sorts of stuff.

You can start your day behind a crimson Sports Coverage Cardinals Shower Curtain made out of the same material as jerseys and with the Cardinals logo.

Why, you'll know how it feels to be Hines Ward with Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie wrapped around you!

Then you can sit down for breakfast at an Imperial International Cardinals Pub Table while seated on their matching bar stool, each with a Cardinals logo.

But be careful not to spill any bean dip on the Milliken NFL Football Field Rug, fashioned after the Cardinals home field.

Then plop down in a "Big Daddy" recliner or overstuffed sofa in black with red accents and, of course, the logo from Baseline's Cardinals Collection.

Finally, greet your Super Bowl party guests with the Memory Company Cardinals Door Knocker.

Seriously, did you ever think you'd see knockers with the Cardinals logo on 'em?

Just forget we asked that.
