Stamina InTone Folding Recumbent Bike Giveaway

Valued at $179.00

Five lucky winners will receive a Stamina InTone Folding Recumbent Exercise Bike. Approx. retail value: $179; fitnessequipmentandmore.com, a CSN Store.

This folding bike from Stamina is the ideal piece of exercise equipment for the homeowner short on space—the folding design and wheels allow for more convenient storage and easy portability. The bike has a multifunction LCD monitor that tracks workout time, speed, distance and calories burned for superior target training, and also features an easy-to-use adjustable resistance mechanism that allows the user to increase or decrease workout intensity.

Stamina's InTone Folding Recumbent Bike's cushioned seat and seat back allow for greater comfort, and the adjustable seat fits various user heights. The product has a sturdy steel-frame construction, foam padded grips and slide-resistant foot pads.
