Cuddle in front of Blomus ethanol fireplace

The Blomus Chimo Large Wave Fireplace holds great appeal to the green-minded romantic who likes the idea of a fireplace and can neither afford to build one nor condone the pollution emitted by burning wood.

Listed at $1,433 with free shipping at www.csnstores.com, the fireplace mounts on any wall and requires no chimney.

It burns only ethanol fuel, and comes with three bottles of the stuff.

Yes, there's a caveat. A bottle of fuel burns for about three hours - and the best price we could find on the Web for replacement bottles, even in bulk, was about $10.

On date night, though, that plus a DVD rental is cheaper than two movie tickets.
